Acts: Catching Up with the Spirit Meets for 6 weeks at four different times

In the season between Easter and Pentecost, we focus on how God's Spirit is working in and through the Church. This 6-week study will provide an introduction to the Book of Acts (the story of the early Church) and explore six key themes that illustrate the ways in which reading Acts is capable of igniting our imagination about the character of the Christian message, the work of God's people (the church), and the challenges of living faithfully in a complex and changing world.

Wednesdays at 7:30am (beginning April 21)

Thursdays at 9:30am (beginning April 15)

Wednesdays at 7pm (beginning April 14)

Sundays from 8:30-9:45am (beginning April 18)

Contact Rev. Ryan Wallace at rwallace@boxp.net or (224) 207-7586 to participate.

Easter to Pentecost: A Spiritual Journey Sundays on Zoom @ 8:30am (April 11, 18, 25)

As we await the Church's celebration of the gift of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, we will reflect on various definitions of spirituality; what Christian spirituality is, and what the Spirit invites us to do/be/become. Join Mary Ann Spina for three faith-building weeks of exploring what it means to practice Christ-centered spirituality. If you have time prior to class, write your own definition of spirituality and a short description (3-5 words) about your own spirituality.

Contact Kathy Knezevic at Office@firstpresdf.org to participate.

Reflecting on the Psalms with C.S. Lewis Wednesdays on Zoom @ 7pm (April 7-28)

During these times of crisis and Covid, the Psalms provide a great platform for discussion and growth. Join Dr. Greg Anderson who will be discussing C.S. Lewis' "Reflections on the Psalms" as a way of using the Psalms as a vital resource for times such as these. Using insights from Lewis' only biblical commentary, we will explore topics such as anger, death, justice, beauty, and biblical authority.
