Church Life

April 23, 2023

We believe in building the kingdom of God in this world. We strive to be a welcoming and inclusive church that celebrates the diversity existing in our community. That means bringing good news to the poor, freedom to the oppressed, welcoming the stranger, and loving one another as Jesus loves us. We do this by choosing love and being the light that changes the world. Thank you for worshiping with us in this spirit.

BUY STOCK TO SUPPORT OUR YOUTH — Sundays, through April 30 — The Youth Stock Sale is back! You can buy shares from the middle and high school youth following each worship service. ENGAGE & ENCOUNTER: *Father Abraham's Many Children: The Bible in a World of Religious Difference — Wednesdays, April 26 and May 3 / 7:00 pm / Chapel / Rev. Ken Hockenberry — In the past 70 years in America, we have seen a vast increase in the diversity of religious affiliations and commitments. Many of us have neighbors and co-workers who are Christians (Protestant, Roman Catholic and Orthodox), as well as Muslim, Hindus, Jews, Buddhists, Mormons, Bahais – among others, as well as many who are “nones” – those with no religious affiliation. As Christians of the Presbyterian sort, how do we participate in the religious diversity that is all around us? What do our sacred texts and stories in the Bible tell us about living in a society of religious diversity and pluralism? Join our class led by Rev. Ken Hockenberry, as we explore this topic using this new book by Dr. Tyler Mayfield, Father Abraham's Many Children. (You can order this book on Amazon).

'GARDENING KNOW HOW' GATHERING — Wednesday evenings, through May 3 (No Meeting April 26) / 7:00-8:00 pm / Parlor — ? Do you have gardening questions to ask experienced gardeners? Seasoned gardeners, some with Master Gardener Certification, will be available to answer questions and facilitate information sessions.

The lessons explore the concept of salvation and God's gracious acts in redeeming us. They challenge we who have experienced God's gracious salvation to work for freedom and justice on behalf of others. They acknowledge that as we do, we will encounter those whose beliefs and values are different from our own, so they encourage us in ways to remain faithful to our beliefs while we act as neighbors to others.

RESTAURANT WALK IS BACK! — Our popular Restaurant Walk fellowship program returns for another session! Meals will take place at Peggy Kinnane's (8 N. Vail Ave.) in downtown Arlington Heights during May. This is a great way to connect with other members of the congregation and support a local business. GARDENERS WANTED — The church's volunteer gardeners are looking for a couple of people to help maintain our landscaping. The job would require two to four hours a week, watering and keeping the gardens clean. Please contact Walt Meyer at 847-253-1701 for more information.

VBS & HOLY TROUBLEMAKERS (FORMERLY MISSIONFACTORY) REGISTRATION IS OPEN! / Register Online / Programs run Monday, July 10 - Friday, July 14 / 9:00 am - 12:00 pm / 4-year-old Preschoolers – Incoming 4th Graders: Register for VBS — In the depths of a colorful underground cave, is the beating heart of the hero community, the Hero Hotline Headquarters where everyone's gifts are valued and every hero has a role to play. Each day at the Hero Hotline Headquarters, superheroes of all ages and abilities answer the call and join the Professor and veteran hero, Super Meer the Meerkat, to provide expert assistance and solutions to Hero Teams everywhere. When Heroes in the field call in, the Professor, Super Meer and our team of heroes will spring into action and explore the ultimate Hero Handbook (the Bible) to discover how all Heroes can follow the examples set by a cast of supporting Bible Heroes in stories from the Old and New Testaments, who work together to bring peace, build each other up and share the great story of God's love for us where they are and with the whole world. As our kids experience these stories through music, drama and storytelling, games, arts and crafts, science and even snacks, they'll learn that Heroes are called to Follow Jesus, Help Others, Work Together, Listen to God, and Show Grace! And, best of all, they'll be invited to answer this call at VBS, at church, at home and every area of their lives.

HOLY Troublemakers — Join us this summer to cause some holy trouble. Join your friends for a week of learning about doing the right thing, working together to show kindness, hope and compassion. Sometimes during the week we will be loud and active, and other times we will be quiet, but always learning how our faith calls us to work for good. You do not want to miss this week of holy troublemaking at First Pres. Invite a friend and register today for either program at firstpresah.org/programs/children-families/vbs-holy-troublemakers/

UPDATE YOUR OFFERING ENVELOPE PREFERENCE — With so many people taking advantage of giving through stock transactions, IRA Contributions, ACH bank withdrawals and online donations, the use of offering envelopes of First Presbyterian Church continues to decline. Many still use offering envelopes; however, we are asking if you no longer want to receive offering envelopes please call the church office so we can remove you from the envelope mailing list. The expense for offering envelopes has increased due to the price of envelopes, shipping costs and postage. If you still want to receive the envelopes, there is no need to contact the church office. If you currently do not receive envelopes but would like to, you may also call the church office and we can add your name to the offering envelope mailing list.
