Adam Hendrickson

✦ CALL TO WORSHIP

One: The One who shaped the universe, crafts us into a community of faith:

All: a people to shelter the homeless, a family to feed the hungry.

One: The One who made kittens and elephants, shapes us in the divine image:

All: so we can grow with grace as we welcome the hopeless and helpless.

One: The One who blesses us with flowers and waterfalls, gifts us with the way, the truth, the life:

All: so we can go to tell the story, to bring healing to a broken world.

CALL TO CONFESSION Adam Hendrickson

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

In humility, we must confess how we have not matured as your children, Gentle Parent. The hurting and helpless of our world cry out, and we cover our ears with hands which could be serving them. The forsaken and ridiculed of our neighborhoods and schools are looking for a community of acceptance, and we cover our eyes with hands which could welcome them. The lonely and grieving are listening for hope, and we cover our mouths with hands which could embrace them, and sing gentle songs of grace to them.

Forgive us, Refuge of the broken. Our times are in your hands, so help us to believe we can be healed in this moment. Our hearts are in your heart, so transform ours that we can serve your children. Our lives are redeemed by the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior, so call us to give them away in his name...

SILENT CONFESSION

(please pray a silent and personal prayer of confession during this time)

...in Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

WORDS OF FORGIVENESS

One: The good news is that in Christ, our sins are forgiven, our lives are made whole, we become God's own people. Do you not believe?

All: We believe. And in believing, we will live as those chosen, not only to tell a Story, but to live it out each and every day. Thanks be to God. Amen.

✦ GLORY TO GOD (Hymn 582)

Glory to God, whose goodness shines on me, and to the Son, whose grace has pardoned me, and to the Spirit, whose love has set me free. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. Amen.

OFFERING

OFFERTORY "The Servant Song" David Schwoebel
*"If anyone would be first, they shall be the last of all. We are travelers on a journey, Fellow pilgrims on the road; We are here to help each other walk the mile and bear the load. I will hold the Christlight for you in the nighttime of your fear;
I will hold my hand out to you, Speak the peace you long to hear. Sister, let me be your servant, Let me be as Christ to you; Pray that I may have the grace to Let you be my servant, too. Brother, let me be your servant,
Let me be as Christ to you; Pray that I may have the grace to Let you be my servant, too. If anyone would be first, they shall be the last of all, be the servant of all. I will weep when you are weeping, when you laugh, I'll laugh with you; I will share your joy and sorrow, Till we've seen this journey through. When we sing to God in heaven, We shall find such harmony, Born of all we've known together of Christ's love and agony.
If anyone would be first, they shall be the last of all, be the servant of all."*

Church Life

June 25, 2023

We believe in building the kingdom of God in this world. We strive to be a welcoming and inclusive church that celebrates the diversity existing in our community. That means bringing good news to the poor, freedom to the oppressed, welcoming the stranger, and loving one another as Jesus loves us. We do this by choosing love and being the light that changes the world. Thank you for worshiping with us in this spirit.

A MESSAGE FROM SESSION:

First Pres Family,

The Session has been hard at work in several areas of our church life, including the interim period after Pastor Alex leaves. We're pleased to let you know that, effective 9/1/2023, Pastor Laura Sherwood will be elevated to interim Head of Staff of First Pres. We look forward to working with Pastor Laura as she leads us through the interim period and helps us develop a clear vision for our church's future.

We are currently putting together a search committee for our interim Associate Pastor and our goal is to have that person in place by September 1. Once our interim staff is in place, we'll begin the process of discerning what comes next for our congregation. This will include visioning and formation of nominating committees for our installed pastors.

You'll hear the term "installed pastor" quite a bit in the coming months. This is the term used for what you might think of as our permanent pastors. Since we know that nothing in this earthly life is permanent, the Presbyterian Church uses the word "installed" to identify non-interim pastoral staff.

As always, we're available for any questions that you have. In Christ,

First Pres Session

Upcoming discussions: Thursday, July 27 / 6:00 pm / Parlor — Climate Justice, by Mary Robinson. Former President of Ireland, Mary Robinson's mission to bring together the fight against climate change and the global struggle for human rights brought her to a heartening revelation: that an irrepressible driving force in the battle for climate justice could be found at the grassroots level, mainly among women, many of them mothers and grandmothers like herself. Robinson met with ordinary people whose resilience and ingenuity had already unlocked extraordinary change: from a Mississippi matriarch whose campaign began in her East Biloxi hair salon and culminated in her speaking at the United Nations, to a farmer who transformed the fortunes of her ailing community in rural Uganda. In Climate Justice, she shares their stories and many more. Powerful and deeply humane, this uplifting book is a stirring manifesto on one of the most pressing humanitarian issues of our time, and a lucid, affirmative and well-argued case for hope. Thursday, August 24 / 6:00 pm / Parlor — Beautiful Country, by Qian Julie Wang. Mark your calendar now!
